RCIA NEWS – Congratulations to our RCIA participants who completed the second step towards Christian Initiation. Last Sunday, within the Celebration of Election our two Catechumens, HENRY PRESTAGE and HEATHER NEUMANN, reaffirmed their desire for the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist). Bishop Campbell, on behalf of the Church, then accepted their readiness based on their testimony and that of their godparents and RCIA instructors and publicly declared them as the "elect," that is, the chosen and admitted by God to initiation in the Catholic Church.

Additionally, within last Sunday's Celebration of the Call to Full Communion in the Catholic Church, our three candidates – CHRISTINE ROSATI-YOOS, AMY ZELEZNIK, and RICHARD KENDALL – who have previously received a Christian Baptism, affirmed their readiness and desire to now seek the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Bishop Campbell, on behalf of the Church, recognized the desire of each candidate and extended to them the Church's continued support. Please keep our elect and candidates in your prayers as they prepare for Easter Vigil Initiation Celebration.

Free books for Lent: Pick up a copy of a FREE book for Lent. This year's featured book is The Real Story, by Curtis Martin and Dr. Edward Sri. Do you know the real story of the Bible? What do Adam and Eve, Moses, David, Jesus and the Apostles have to do with my life? In The Real Story, Edward Sri and Curtis Martin break open the Word to examine how all these pieces fit together into one cohesive narrative – a story of how, little by little, God has drawn His people into closer union with Himself, culminating in the coming of Jesus Christ and the establishment of His Church. Through a closer study of the key characters and events in the larger biblical narrative, Sri and Martin show that the Bible ultimately isn't a collection of disjointed stories, but an epic saga of God's infinite love for us and His perfect plan for our salvation since the beginning of time.
