Catholic CD of the Week: This week's featured CD is Is God on Your iPod? by Matt Smith. Is mainstream music bad for you? Can hit songs remind you of the things of God? Matt Smith discusses how we as Christians can judge between different types of music to determine whether or not they lead us closer to the Good, the True, and the Beautiful... which is ultimately closer to God.

Free books for Lent: Pick-up a copy of a FREE book for Lent. This year's featured book is The Real Story by Curtis Martin and Dr. Edward Sri. Do you know the real story of the Bible? What do Adam and Eve, Moses, David, Jesus and the Apostles have to do with my life? In The Real Story, Edward Sri and Curtis Martin break open the Word to examine how all these pieces fit together into one cohesive narrative – a story of how, little by little, God has drawn His people into closer union with Himself, culminating in the coming of Jesus Christ and the establishment of His Church. Through a closer study of the key characters and events in the larger biblical narrative, Sri and Martin show that the Bible ultimately isn't a collection of disjointed stories, but an epic saga of God's infinite love for us and His perfect plan for our salvation since the beginning of time.

Registration is underway for the 2015 St. Charles Father/Son Mass and Breakfast on Saturday, March 28th. This annual fraternal gathering, sponsored by St. Charles Alumni Association, continues to grow in popularity and drew over 300 dads and sons last year. We also encourage current students, incoming freshmen and any other interested 6th, 7th or 8th graders, to attend along with their fathers, grandfathers and uncles.

The event begins at 9:30 a.m. with Mass in Mother of Mercy Chapel, celebrated by Fr. Bill Arnold ('70), pastor of Holy Spirit and St. Phillips parishes. A complimentary buffet breakfast (prepared by Bosc + Brie) and guest speaker's comments follow in the Robert C. Walter Student Commons. The breakfast is free, but you are still asked to reserve your spot(s) to ensure there is plenty of food on hand for everyone. To sign up or for more information on this or any other alumni activity, please contact St. Charles alumni director Louis J. Fabro ('83) in the school's Alumni and Development Office at lfabro@cducation.org.
