Message from the Grand
Knight

Brother
Knights,

As the days turn cooler and families are re-engaged in school and work routines, we get busy and time for fellowship with the Lord and each other can get crowded out. TMIY is starting a new series just in time, a great way to spend time learning and in fellowship, at an hour when other activities are less likely to get in the way. Look for more information in the bulletin and I 'm eager to reconnect and welcome new men to the group.

This month we will have Corporate Communion at the 10 a.m. mass on Sunday, September 27th. Please wear your Knights shirt or nametag, and if you have children who are servers, or are a lector or Eucharistic minister yourself, please look for the sign up via email. This is a good opportunity for worship and service together and for the parish to see who we are.

For those who generously give blood to the Red Cross, our next drive will be October 1 8th at Our Lady of Peace old rectory.

May the Lord continue to bless you,

Dave Davisson, Grand Knight

St. Michael, St. Gabriel and St. Raphael
Archangels
September 29

Angels are messengers from God. They appear frequently in Scripture, but only Michael, Gabriel and Raphael are named.

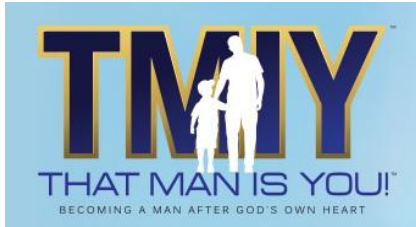

Michael appears in Daniel's vision as "the great prince" who defends Israel against its enemies; in the Book of Revelation, he leads God's armies to final victory over the forces of evil. Devotion to Michael is the oldest angelic devotion, rising in the East in the fourth century. The Church in the West began to observe a feast honoring Michael and the angels in the fifth century.

Gabriel also makes an appearance in Daniel's visions, announcing Michael's role in God's plan. His best-known appearance is an encounter with a young Jewish girl named Mary, who consents to bear the Messiah.

Raphael's activity is confined to the Old Testament story of Tobit. There he appears to guide Tobit's son Tobiah through a series of fantastic adventures which lead to a threefold happy ending: Tobiah's marriage to Sarah, the healing of Tobit's blindness and the restoration of the family fortune.

The memorials of Gabriel (March 24) and Raphael (October 24) were added to the Roman calendar in 1921. The 1970 revision of the calendar joined their feasts to Michael's.

On September 19 the OLP Knights will be hosting the 4th season of the inspiring Catholic men's program That Man is You. The theme this year is The Spirit of Nazareth.

The sessions will begin on Saturday morning, September 19. The 13 weekly sessions will begin at 6:00 AM with breakfast and will end promptly at 7:45 AM. Advance registration is required and can be made through the That Man is You website at <http://www.paradisusdei.org/index.php/programs/tmiy/>. Knights Soccer Challenge 2015

Also on September 19 the OLP Knights of Columbus will be conducting the annual Soccer Challenge. The Challenge is open to all boys and girls in the parish, ages 9-14. Each player will be allowed 15 shots at the goal from the penalty line. As OLP is the only Council in the district offering the Soccer Challenge, winners will also be recognized as district champions and can go on to the regional and state competitions. The competition will be held at Kenny Field on Saturday, September 19. For more information please contact Slade Hankinson at sladehankinson@aol.com.

Slade will be sending out details on times and an opportunity for you to volunteer for the event.

Said by Mother Teresa

"Abortion kills twice. It kills the body of the baby and it kills the conscience of the mother. Abortion is profoundly anti-women. Three quarters of its victims are women: Half the babies and all the mothers."

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

Catholic History Timeline

711: Muslims began the conquest of Spain.

726: Emperor Leo III, the Isaurian, launched a campaign against the veneration of sacred images and relics; called Iconoclasm (image-breaking), it caused turmoil in the East until about 843.

731: Pope Gregory III and a synod at Rome condemned Iconoclasm, with a declaration that the veneration of sacred images was in accord with Catholic tradition. Venerable Bede issued his Ecclesiastical History of the English People.

732: Charles Martel (The Hammer) defeated the Muslims at Poitiers, halting their advance in the West.

744: The Monastery of Fulda was established by St. Sturm, a disciple of St. Boniface; it was influential in the evangelization of Germany.

754: A council of more than 300 Byzantine bishops endorsed Iconoclast errors. This council and its actions were condemned by the Lateran synod of 769. Stephen II crowned Pepin ruler of the Franks. Pepin twice invaded Italy, in 754 and 756, to defend the pope against the Lombards.

755: St. Boniface was martyred. He was called the Apostle of Germany for his missionary work and organization of the hierarchy there.

781: Alcuin was chosen by Charlemagne to organize a palace school, which became a center of intellectual leadership.
