Message from the Grand
Knight

Brother
Knights,

May and June are the months for First Communions, graduations, weddings and other family events. These are good times to catch up with family members and celebrate.

The OLP Knights had a number of successful projects going on in April and May.

Our Donut Sundays and the OLP Blood Drive were both big successes. Thanks to all who participated and helped to serve the parish and those who are in desperate need of blood. The Knights are here to serve and that is what we do.

On May 7 we braved oncoming traffic at Henderson and High to collect for the Measure Up Campaign. Our campaign directly benefits the Columbus Special Olympics. We collected $1,790 dollars with our efforts. Thanks to everyone who participated – it was a great day for everyone!

Look forward to seeing you at the June meeting

May the Lord continue to bless you,

Dave Davisson, Grand Knight

Saint Augustine of Canterbury,
Bishop
?-605
May 27

In the year 596, some 40 monks set out from Rome to evangelize the Anglo-Saxons in England. Leading the group was Augustine, the prior of their monastery in Rome. Hardly had he and his men reached Gaul (France) when they heard stories of the ferocity of the Anglo-Saxons and of the treacherous waters of the English Channel. Augustine returned to Rome and to the pope who had sent them—St. Gregory the Great (September 3)—only to be assured by him that their fears were groundless.

Augustine again set out. This time the group crossed the English Channel and landed in the territory of Kent, ruled by King Ethelbert, a pagan married to a Christian, Bertha. Ethelbert received them kindly, set up a residence for them in Canterbury and within the year, on Pentecost Sunday, 597, was himself baptized. After being consecrated a bishop in France, Augustine returned to Canterbury, where he founded his see. He constructed a church and monastery near where the present cathedral, begun in 1070, now stands. As the faith spread, additional sees were established at London and Rochester.

Work was sometimes slow and Augustine did not always meet with success. Attempts to reconcile the Anglo-Saxon Christians with the original Briton Christians (who had been driven into western England by Anglo-Saxon invaders) ended in dismal failure. Augustine failed to convince the Britons to give up certain Celtic customs at variance with Rome and to forget their bitterness, helping him evangelize their Anglo-Saxon conquerors

Laboring patiently, Augustine wisely heeded the missionary principles—quite enlightened for the times—suggested by Pope Gregory the Great: purify rather than destroy pagan temples and customs; let pagan rites and festivals be transformed into Christian feasts; retain local customs as far as possible. The limited success Augustine achieved in England before his death in 605, a short eight years after he arrived in England, would eventually bear fruit long after in the conversion of England. Augustine of Canterbury can truly be called the “Apostle of England.”

Measure Up!

The annual Measure Up! Collection to benefit the Columbus Special Olympics was held on Saturday, May 7. The Knights collected $1,790. Thanks to all who participated or contributed from their car.

Remember Memorial Day May 30, 2016

Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down
earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst
and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ
our Lord.
R/. Amen

SPECIAL
GAMES HELD ON KofC FIELD IN ROME

The Knights of Columbus hosted a unique Special Olympics event, May 20-22, at the Pius XI Field in Rome that featured eight teams composed of players with and without intellectual disabilities.

Part of the Special Olympics European Football Week, the event was designed to break down barriers and offer a model for how communities can include people with intellectual disabilities.

The tournament included four teams from Italy and one team each from France, Lithuania, Poland and Hungary. Players ranged in age from 18 to 30.

"The Knights of Columbus has been a supporter of Special Olympics since the very first games were held nearly half a century ago. Both in the United States and abroad, we have been strong supporters of these games and their clear message of human dignity," said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. "It is particularly fitting that this year Special Olympics games will be held on our fields in Rome, since these fields have been at the service of the people of Rome and their children for nearly a century."

"The Knights of Columbus have been generously supporting Special Olympics athletes not just in the USA," said Tim Shriver, chairman of Special Olympics International, who cited the Knights for their work "across Italy, Europe and the rest of the world."

The K of C has been a partner of Special Olympics since the first games were held in 1968, with Knights supporting the organization at the local, national and international levels.

The Pius XI athletic facility — which was used for the Special Olympics games this week — was originally constructed in the 1920s and is located adjacent to St. Peter's Basilica. It was from this facility that the Vatican ran its humanitarian food operations for the people of Rome during World War II. Following the war, the facility was also used by the Allies for food distribution to the children of Rome. In the 1960s, the Knights donated the land to the Vatican for the construction of the Paul VI Audience Hall. The athletic facility was then moved to its current location.
