Message from the Grand
Knight

Brother
Knights,

November is a month of remembrance and one of thanksgiving.

We begin with All Saints' and All Souls' Day, remembering all those, both the great and the humble, who have gone before, serving the Lord in their daily lives.

I'd like to thank any brothers who have served or do serve our country in the military. We have the chance to show appreciation to those currently serving through Operation Buckeye this month.

I have a lot to be thankful for this year as we prepare for Thanksgiving and one thing is the fellowship and service opportunities that the Knights of Columbus has given me.

May the Lord continue to bless you,

Dave Davisson, Grand Knight

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

St. Didacus Franciscan Priest
1400-1463
November 7

As a young man in Spain, Didacus joined the Secular Franciscan Order and lived for some time as a hermit. After Didacus became a Franciscan brother, he developed a reputation for great insight into God's ways. His penances were heroic. He was so generous with the poor that the friars sometimes grew uneasy about his charity.

Didacus volunteered for the missions in the Canary Islands and labored there energetically and profitably. He was also the superior of a friary there.

In 1450 he was sent to Rome to attend the canonization of St. Bernardine of Siena. When many friars gathered for that celebration fell sick, Didacus stayed in Rome for three months to nurse them. After he returned to Spain, he pursued a life of contemplation full-time. He showed the friars the wisdom of God's ways.

As he was dying, Didacus looked at a crucifix and said: "O faithful wood, O precious nails! You have borne an exceedingly sweet burden, for you have been judged worthy to bear the Lord and King of heaven."

San Diego, California, is named for this Franciscan, who was canonized in 1588.

"He was born in Spain with no outstanding reputation for learning but was like our first teachers and leaders unlettered as men count wisdom, an unschooled person, a humble lay brother in religious life. [God chose Didacus] to show in him the abundant riches of his grace to lead many on the way of salvation by the holiness of his life and by his example and to prove over and over to a weary old world almost decrepit with age that God's folly is wiser than men, and his weakness is more powerful than men" (Bull of Canonization).

800th
Anniversary of the Dominican Order

This year marks the 800th

Anniversary of the founding of the Dominican Order by St. Dominic Guzman. The Dominicans have a special place in the Catholic History of Ohio and the Diocese of Columbus. It was Dominican Father Edward Dominic Fenwick (pictured), the "Apostle of Ohio," who brought the Catholic faith to Ohio. Father Fenwick later became the first Bishop of Cincinnati.

To recognize their contribution to the State of Ohio the Dominicans have created a historical display. This unique presentation will be on display in the Ohio Statehouse Map Room (across from the Gift Shop) from now through November 30.

Knight's Annual Clothing Drive to McArthur, Ohio

Thanks to everyone who participated in delivering clothing to St. Francis Mission in McArthur, Ohio as a result of the St. Vincent de Paul clothing drive.

It was a beautiful Fall day and over 600 bags of clothing were delivered. Special thanks to Dave King for the use of his truck.

Are You a Radio-active Catholic?

St. Gabriel Radio (AM 820) is celebrating its 10th year on the air. Please listen when you can. If you are able they can also use your financial support to keep them broadcasting the Catholic message to the people of Central Ohio.

Said by Mother Teresa

"We need to find God, and he cannot be found in noise and restlessness. God is the friend of silence. See how nature - trees, flowers, grass- grows in silence; see the stars, the moon and the sun, how they move in silence... We need silence to be able to touch souls."

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

Catholic History Timeline

847-52: Period of composition of the False Decretals, a collection of forged documents attributed to popes from St. Clement (88-97) to Gregory II (714-731). The Decretals, which strongly supported the autonomy and rights of bishops, were suspect for a long time before being repudiated entirely about 1628.

848: The Council of Mainz condemned Gottschalk for heretical teaching regarding predestination. He was also condemned by the Council of Quierzy in 853.

857: Photius displaced Ignatius as patriarch of Constantinople. This marked the beginning of the Photian Schism, a confused state of East-West relations which has not yet been cleared up by historical research.

865: St. Ansgar, apostle of Scandinavia, died.

869: St. Cyril died and his brother, St. Methodius (d. 885), was ordained a bishop. The Apostles of the Slavs devised an alphabet and translated the Gospels and liturgy into the Slavonic language.

Prayer to Saint Michael

by Pope Leo XIII

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Pope Leo XIII, who was Pope from 1878 until 1903, realizing by Divine enlightenment the present and future struggles of the Church against the powers of hell, felt convinced that through the intervention of St. Michael, hell would be conquered, and the Church restored to peace and liberty. In 1888 he composed a prayer in honor of the warrior archangel, and ordered it to be recited daily after Low Mass in all the churches throughout the Christian world. This practice was followed until 1965.
