St. Vincent of Zaragoza
Deacon,
Martyr
?-304 AD
January 22

According to the story we have, the unusual devotion he inspired must have had a basis in a very heroic life.

Vincent was ordained deacon by his friend Saint Valerius of Zaragoza in Spain. The Roman emperors had published their edicts against the clergy in 303, and the following year against the laity.

Vincent and his bishop were imprisoned in Valencia.
Hunger and torture failed to break them. Like the youths in the fiery furnace, they seemed to thrive on suffering.

Valerius was sent into exile, and Dacian, the Roman governor, now turned the full force of his fury on Vincent. Tortures that sound very modern were tried. But their main effect was the progressive disintegration of Dacian himself. He had the torturers beaten because they failed.

Finally he suggested a compromise: Would Vincent at least give up the sacred books to be burned according to the emperor's edict? He would not.
Torture on the gridiron continued, the prisoner remaining courageous, the torturer losing control of himself. Vincent was thrown into a filthy prison cell—and converted the jailer. Dacian wept with rage, but strangely enough, ordered the prisoner to be given some rest.

The weather was nasty which the Grand Knight promises to avoid next year by not scheduling the party on the 13th. Despite the weather, a grand time was had by those attending.
